

Stand in Solidarity with Mohammed Al Halengy

Mohammed Al Halengy is from Eastern Sudan. He came to the UK in 2006 to flee persecution as he is a member of the Beja tribe, a marginalised ethnic group in East Sudan. This group has struggled for a federal system, equal wealth and power sharing, development and an end to marginalization.

Mohammed is a RAPAR Leadership member and also a key leader of Beja Congress UK. He provides effective help and support to Sudanese people and campaigns for justice and equality in Sudan.

An Upper Tribunal Hearing will be held to determine Mohammed Al Halengy's right to stay in the UK on Wednesday 7th November at 10 am.

Please assemble from 9:30 onwards at:

Piccadilly Exchange,
1st Floor Piccadilly Exchange,
2 Piccadilly Plaza,
Mosley Street,
