

Mary Adenugba and RAPAR invite you to attend
Mary's campaign launch

Friday 30th March, 7pm, Cross Street Chapel, Manchester

About Mary: Mary Adenugba is a victim of trafficking. She was brought from Nigeria to the UK in 2004 and exploited by her traffickers for 3 years. The Home Office refused Mary's asylum claim in January 2012 without any proper consideration for her circumstances; she is currently working with RAPAR to appeal this decision.

Join us for the official launch of Mary's campaign
Friday 30th March, 7pm until 9pm
Cross Street Chapel, Cross Street, Manchester, M2 1NL

- Invited speakers include: Mary Adenugba (RAPAR), Tony Lloyd MP, Rev. Jane Barraclough, Zeinab Mohamed (RAPAR) and UNITE the Union.
- There will be performances from The Manchester Community Choir and Afrocats. Food will also be provided, courtesy of Zeinab Mohamed.

Everyone welcome – help keep Mary safe in the UK!

RSVP by email (contact helen@rapar.org.uk) or turn up on the night.
